

Check for understanding 9/15:

Power Point on Present Progressive:

1. What is an example of a sentence in present progressive in English?
2. When do you use present progressive?
3. How do you say closing in Spanish?
4. How do you say eating in Spanish?
5. How do you say writing in Spanish?
6. -ing = _____ in -ar verbs
7. -ing = _____ in -er verbs
8. -ing = _____ in -ir verbs
9. reading = _____ in Spanish
10. listening = _____ in Spanish
11. Why are reading and listening irregular in Spanish?

TRANSLATE:

12. Are they dancing?
13. Yes, they are dancing.
14. What is she doing?
15. She is singing.
16. Is it singing?
17. No, it's not singing.
18. It's eating.
19. Is it sleeping?
20. No, it's not sleeping.
21. It's thinking.

ANSWER:

22. What is the infinitive form of thinking in Spanish?
23. How did you figure this out?
24. Dormir is the Spanish infinitive form of to sleep. What is its form in Spanish when it means sleeping?
25. Why is the -ing form of dormir irregular?

TRANSLATE:

26. What's the mouse doing?

ANSWER:

27. Does "What's the mouse doing?" have the same word order when translated in Spanish as it does in English?
28. Why not?

TRANSLATE:

29. Is it reading?
30. Yes, it's reading.
31. What are you doing?

ANSWER #31 in Spanish in a complete sentence.

hints: to learn: aprender to write: escribir to think: pensar to read: leer